 - Robyn Salazar, Burglary Detective Supervisor, Los Angeles Police Department –

Detective Robyn Salazar is a nearly twenty one-year veteran of the Los Angeles Police Department. She began as a patrol officer in 1996. Four years later, she became a field training officer. After working in that capacity for five years, she was promoted to detective where she worked homicide cases for five years. After that, she became a night-watch detective supervisor before becoming the Burglary Table Supervisor where she's assigned today.

- Lee Versoza & Christine Reins-Jarin, Inspectors, United States Postal Inspection Service –

Lee Versoza and Christine Reins-Jarin are eleven and five-year veterans, respectively, of the United States Postal Inspection Service. Postal Inspectors investigate crimes against the United States Postal Service and crimes related to the misuse and attack of the mail system, including theft of United States Mail, fraud, and related activity in connection with access devices (including credit and debit cards), identity theft, and unauthorized use of other persons' information for financial gain. Inspectors Versoza and Reins-Jarin have both been involved in numerous investigations of mail theft, identity theft, robberies, burglaries, assaults, mail fraud, bank fraud, and illegal drugs in the mail.
