

Where new lives begin...

Harvest Home is the place where new lives begin for pregnant women who are transitioning out of homelessness. Located in a Venice neighborhood, Harvest Home provides a nurturing and supportive home environment where a woman prepares for the birth of her child, bonds with her baby post-partum, and works to regain her independence. Holistic programming equips and empowers women in the following areas:

- Care for her child
- Financial independence
- Emotional well-being
- Physical health
- Spiritual growth

The journey continues...

After graduation, alumnae families continue to receive support, encouragement and structured follow up through our Alumnae Program.

The women we serve

Harvest Home serves pregnant women over 18 who are homeless or in transition, and seeking positive change in their lives. Our current capacity allows us to serve 8 women at a time and up to 24 women annually. The need for Harvest Home's services continues to grow with over 500 women calling each year in need of support. Over the next 5 years, we are planning to expand to an additional home to respond to the growing number of women in need.

"Growing up I didn't have anyone positive to teach me basic things like cooking, cleaning and becoming a woman. At Harvest Home, I learned to be a better person, a better mother, and a better woman."

ANGEL, 2011 graduate

"Harvest Home provided me a new beginning. The program allowed me to mature as a woman and gain strength, knowledge, and wisdom as I prepared for the arrival of my son."
